BHA Residents Memorial Luncheon

On Wednesday, March 25, 2026, residents came together in the 16 River Street community room for a heartfelt gathering honoring the memories of deceased BHA residents. Reverend Katherine Adams of the First Congregational Church on 18 Andover Road in Billerica opened the event with a thoughtful remembrance prayer, setting a tone of reflection and unity. One by one, residents were invited to speak, sharing the names, stories, and cherished memories of those they have lost. The room filled with personal reflections, moments of gratitude, and a shared sense of connection as the community honored the lives of friends and neighbors who are dearly missed. After the remembrance, attendees enjoyed a catered lunch provided by Mr. Jacks, offering a warm and comforting close to a meaningful afternoon spent together.
